“ Prayers for Jeanne's soul and for her family. I met Jeanne during a leadership development course offered by the diocese a few years ago. Because I live in Clinton, I'd often give her a ride to our gatherings. I admired her zest for life, love of God, and ability to tell the best stories about her long and fascinating life.

What shocking news. Your mother just telephoned to me a few days before. She had a bit of a cold and I didn't recognize her voice immediately. We caught up on family news and planned on her visiting me in Huntington Beach, CA, as we had done many times. We talked about 'old times' with much humor and thanksgivings. I will miss that visit and my prayers go up for her and the family. Fr. Charles Sacquety, St. David's in the 60s,
