Aaron is on point. Uncle Jed was the King of Fun! I loved visiting and when he'd take the RV to visit his sister, my mom in NY. The best memories, with the greatest cousins. Will never forget the wedding turned celebration. An awesome weekend filled with family, euchre tournaments and laughs.

“ Trying to light three candles for my love bug and can't because the app isn't working. Sadly, this is more troubling and creating much more emotion. Should I just wish the app they offered work.

“ Jed... great memories of our trip to Sturgis with our bikes in your RV. The houses your company did for me; the Lincoln, the boat, the conversations; the good times. Rest in peace brother... until we meet again. Carl from Saline Absolutely good times Karl !

I loved him from the day I met him and will love him until the day I die! he was a great human, the kindest, funny, most giving considerate individual I've met in my entire life! I missed him ever since I moved to Colorado.

where he assured me, he would be joining .. to my friend, my human, my loved one, my soulmate, the love of my life! The first person I've ever had this connection with in my entire life! I will miss you! honor you and respect you!. No one will ever replace you... dude you were my ride or die.,

I felt angels around me, around the time of your passing, and that made me curious ..

The only man I have ever loved! I knew that he might have passed without my knowledge. I found you, my friend, my love, in the afterlife, but I know you're protecting me and watching over me! I don't need to say how I know, I will see you again, my love, my friend, my Jed, because we know..

I love you as much today as the day I met you was love at first sight! I'm sad that I left to Colorado without you.. I am brokenhearted and saddened and miss you even more because I know I will not see or speak to you again. I can't expect you to pop in the door at any given moment. Oh no lol I can't expect a random calls I can't expect or random jokes. I pray for your family and their healing in this difficult time my friend. I love you I miss you. I have always loved you and I always will.!

Much love: your ride or die.,,

One day I will join you again my friend, and it will be the happiest day of my life... 🙏😘💕

“ Thank you Uncle Jed for always hosting the big get togethers when we came to visit. I love our Michigan family and us being from NY, it wasn't important for us to see everyone and you always welcomed everyone. The card games and tournaments are what I'll remember most. Thank you for taking care of grandma in her last years. There will always be a place in my heart for you. Xoxo ~Danielle Gardner
