I remember Jeff from Bingo in Milan at the Moose and at the American Legion in Saline. He sat with my husband and I. We enjoyed many laughs together. He was funny, we would laugh at who would win first. So sorry for your loss Mary, God Bless.

Dearest Baby Cousin,...The Great One has taken you to that place of peace and beauty..... Your bow and arrow is now drawn only for Him..... You were always that child that made me happy when I was around you.... You are definitely your Mother's Son....it's a "Balmes" thing.....and I am proud to be in that circle with you.... You will be missed but never forgotten.. especially on Nov 15th...I will always think of you and smile....That's what you did to so many you touched....Thank you Jeff,....Until then...Love, Ruthie
