

Jerry Brian Schmidtke

October 1, 2016

Jerry passed away after fighting a two-year battle with pancreatic cancer on Saturday, October 1, 2016. He was born in Detroit, MI, the son of John Paul Schmidtke and Lydia Ann (Krause) Super. Jerry kept his sense of humor until the very end of his life and will be missed by family and friends. Jerry was a die hard Michigan State fan, loved riding his motorcycle which he got to enjoy this last summer, and loved spending time, and working at, the Polish Village Cafe in Hamtramck. Survivors include his children Stephanie Schmidtke and Matthew Schmidtke. Other survivors include his brothers Jon (Gwynne) and Marty (Nancy) Schmidtke. Jerry was preceded in death by his parents. “ This is very tardy, as I lost contact with Jerry over the years - my bad. Lots of laughs over the years in California and as a Michigan boy from Kalamazoo, we shared a lot in common. Now I know why I didn't get a birthday greeting last December. Miss you, miss the laughter...
