“ Johnny it's sad to see you go. Two weeks ago I shook your hand and you returned a friendly smile. We were only acquaintances on the soccer field but you would have made a great friend if I had been lucky enough. The guys said you don't have family in the US but I hope we made at least some kind of a substitute. Your warmth and pluck remain an inspiration.

“ We will miss seeing you pull up in the white sedan always 30 minutes after the start of all the soccer games at Clague. We will sorely miss your defensive toughness with your bare skin even on the coldest days. We will definitely miss your random goal kick that usually end up in the feet of the opposing team. We will miss you.
