“ Growing up, Jonathan was sooooo cool to me. I was afraid to even talk to him because he was so effortlessly cool. And what was awesome is he also showed me that being cool can mean being kind and patient. Honestly I’ve never met anyone that compares. Wholeheartedly one of a kind, and I am so grateful that he was a part of our lives. I just keep picturing his face when we were at state - he wouldn’t say a word but just look at Nick with his incredibly sweet smile like: “Yeah Nick, okay...” :)

We lost a brother, but his impact is ongoing and forever. So much love to the Komorowski family for being the kindest people ever - thank you for everything you’ve given us.

“ Jonathan and I crossed paths later in life but at a crossroads for both of us. We shared many candid conversations about the trials and tribulations that life itself brought. He was always so supportive and caring, such a gentle and forever kind soul. He will be forever missed. My deepest sympathy to the family and all that knew him.

“ Jonathan is one of my most cherished friends. I am forever grateful for the friendship we had. From middle school and throughout college, we had some great times. One thing I remember most about Jonathan was how he made you feel when he was around. He had the cutest, most adorable smile, he was caring and he was funny. And it's true, no matter what it was, Komo always had your back. Although he has left this earth, his life and the way he impacted our lives will not be forgotten. He is greatly missed. Rest in peace, my friend.

To the Komorowski family, I am so sorry for your loss. My deepest sympathies and prayers are with you.

“ I met Jonathan in early middle school and we quickly became friends. We started our first rock band together and even played a couple highschool talent shows that I will never forget. Jonathan was good at everything he did and I remember taking notice immediately. He was a phenomenal musician, talented athlete, straight-A student, and was all-around one of the kindest and most genuine people I have ever met. My deepest condolences go out to Tom, Deb, and Christina. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Jon was a mentor, teacher, and above all else, friend to me while working in IT at U of M. He was able to get me through some long nights in college, talking on a porch somewhere in the city.

I will miss Jon. My deepest sympathies are with the Komorowski family during this time.

“ Jon and I met at MSIS (now HITS; which is the IT department for the University of Michigan Health System) . He was my supervisor at the time when I started in 2012. We were good friends during the MSIS days with many times bowling, hanging out at friends houses and spending summers at friends houses.

Kommie was funny, witty and a good friend and will be surely missed. My thoughts at with the Komorowski family during these tough times.

“ Komo always had my back. I had the amazing privilege of playing soccer with him for years with the Hawks and with Saline. Me in the mid with Jonathan right behind me on D. If they got past me, they weren't getting past him. He had wheels! He was an amazing athlete, wonderful son and brother, great friend, and a talented musician. You'll be missed, my man.
