“ Judy and I were very close in fact we called each other sister. I'll always remember the excitement she had when I asked her to be a bridesmaid. The joy of music and being in the Michigan Concert Choir. We have shared a lot of tears, joys and prayers. Our special times together having lunch or baking Christmas Cookies, helping to decorate mom's tree. The week she came to PA and the fun she had with my family. It won't be quite the same when I come to MI, but I do know that she was such a blessing in my life and now I have a new Guardian Angel. Love and miss you sis. Kathleen McGahey.

“ Judy was a very cherished friend and a great woman of faith who nourished all the people in her life. Her essence will remain with me for the rest of my journey. We often prayed together; in person, via phone and e-mail. I am saddened at her leaving but I know she is completely whole now. She was certainly gently & lovingly welcomed on the other side. Love you Judy. Thank you for gracing my life with your presence. ❤️ Bobbe
