“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Kathy. She was a strong person who loved her family and friends dearly. I've known her since 1985 when I started working at WCC. She will be missed! My thoughts and prayers for the Reilly family. God blessings with you all. I just recently lost my oldest sister so I sure can relate to the sadness in your heart. But just as Kathy, my sister is rejoicing with no pain. With love and prayers, Darlene Milkey

“ My Aunt Kathy had an indomitable spirit, a big heart and an even bigger laugh. That laugh touched ever person who heard it, and had a spark that could turn something funny into something hilarious. My Aunt Kathy shaped me and my cousins as much as any parent. She taught us to approach all things in life with kindness and sense of humor. Her generosity was unparalleled and so was her cooking. I love her and I miss her.
