“ I loved your mother, she is greatly missed at Beacon. I enjoyed doing her hair such sense of humor. I looked forward to seeing there. That Oct. 10 when I did her hair she wanted me the next week to put light blonde streaks in her hair in the front. She loved being blonde. She always said to me, you think I would give a crap being 92. I loved her and I will always miss her.

Sorry for your Loss of your Mother,

Christine Blair

“ We love this woman who our family called "Nana". Mulier Fortis, a woman of strength and valor, grace and elegance. There was nothing weak about this beloved friend. We always looked forward to being with her. Her words were words of wisdom exposing her magnanimous spirit. We will miss her dearly and know the Lord has welcomed a faithful servant into His kingdom. We treasure one of her last pronouncements as she pushed unwillingly her walker into the celebration of Sunday Mass: "I can hardly wait to get rid of this thing." Such was her spirit. She walks now freely into the loving arms of her Creator. No walker needed anymore. We love the family she treasured.

We grieve our great loss and rejoice over her heavenly achievement. Mulier Fortis..we love you,
