“ Dear John,

Cindy and I are very sad to learn of Kathy's recent passing. I still retain such pleasant memories of growing up in Michigan, with you and Kathy playing important roles in many of those - especially during the time we spent together on White Street and up at North Lake.

And we join you now, in grieving your loss. If there is anything useful I can assist you with from a distance (we are still living in San Diego), I am here for you. Bless you both.
