“ *To the Family of Ken,
Ken was a good friend and neighbor that always enjoyed simple conversation. We would walk over to his house or he would come over to ours. Sometimes we could hear his tractor and he would be coming thru the trees over to visit us behind him. He kept a close eye on us, and liked to come over and check on our progress when we were building our garage. He would even plow the snow thru our back yards with his tractor to make a walking path. He also wanted our son to be his "other" neighbor and was instrumental in making that happen. Rest in Peace Ken, you will be missed.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Ken's passing. My husband, Bruce was good friends and they were co-workers at H.I. Johnson's in Saline. I got to know Kenny and Pat very well. Even after Ken started his own business we stayed in touch, and then after Bruce's death we still stayed in touch. Ran into him several times at Benny's and Busch's. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I met Ken at Benny's Bakery several years ago. He was the sweetest man I have ever met. I spent many Saturday mornings talking with him, Shirley and the gang. I will never forget his smile, the twinkle in his eyes and his kindness. The pandemic prevented us from gathering at Benny's like we used to. That brings me much sadness. I will miss Ken so much.
