He was born October 5, 1946 in Dodgeville, Wisconsin to Harold and Kathleen (Welsh) Shaw, oldest brother to David and Mark Shaw. Ken graduated from Armada High School, class of 1965. He went on to attend Ferris State University and later joined the United States Navy. While studying computer science at Ferris, Ken met Barbara (Bell) Shaw. They married in 1975. Ken worked for MDSI/Schlumberger, and later continued his career as a system analyst, among other positions, at Consumers Energy/ITC. They raised their daughters Kristi and Kate in Saline. Ken had many hobbies including photography, reading, and woodworking. His primary hobby was making and flying model sailplanes. Ken’s interest in sailplanes led to many vacations and friendships over the years. His family has many treasured memories of visiting the Sleeping Bear Dunes area, which began because of his sailplane hobby. He is survived by his children Kristi (Ben) Henry and Kate (Andy Low) Shaw, grandchildren Lila and Carter Henry and Isaac and Megan Low; his brother Mark Shaw, many nieces and nephews, and his close companion, Pam McCallum. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother David, an infant daughter Carolyn, and his wife Barb in 2002. “ Ken was a good guy!! He loved flying his sailplanes. We met Ken at our flying contests. He would always come up behind me, to my surprise, and give me a shoulder massage. He knew I needed a little relaxation during the contests!! We will miss him!!
