

Kyle Michael Clossick

May 17, 1993 - December 19, 2021

Kyle Michael Clossick 28, of Saline, Michigan passed away Sunday, December 19, 2021. Kyle Clossick was born on May 17, 1993, to Philip and Cheryl Clossick. Kyle is survived by his parents, Philip and Cheryl Clossick of Saline, his grandmother, Dorene Dieringer of Ypsilanti, his two sisters, Samantha and Lyndsie Clossick of Saline, and his two daughters, Ella and Eva. He was also survived by his longtime friend Clayton Tito. Kyle was a caring father who passionately loved his daughters, but unfortunately was unable to see his girls for the past two years. Kyle worked at the Ford Motor Company Dearborn truck assembly plant. Kyle was a very caring person who helped friends in their time of need as well as having the keen sense to know when people needed to laugh. And not only did he know they needed to laugh but he knew what to do to make them laugh. He once said, "I do not want to have a birthday party because I am afraid I may forget to invite someone and hurt their feelings" and when asked what he wanted for his Christmas gift he asked for something for someone else. These are just a few examples of his selfless acts and gestures. He also enjoyed playing poker and euchre, working out, and watching the Lions. Family will receive friends on Thursday, December 30, 2021, from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline. Funeral Service will begin at 1:00 P.M. Pastor Drexel Morton will be officiating the service. The service will be live streamed and can be view by clicking here. “ Myself, Mark and the girls are so sadden by the news of Kyle passing. We send all of our love to Phil, Cheryl and the girls. Living so far away we have spent a lot less time together than I would have liked but my fondest memory of Kyle is when he was very young and we were at our nan and granddads and he was going through the 'why' stage and just kept on asking why to everything. Sending all our love xxxxx

“ On behalf of myself, Emma, Ashley and Howie, we are all so very sad to hear the news of Kyles passing. Phil, Cheryl, Sammi and Lulu, please know we are all thinking of you and sending our love. Being separated by the Atlantic, I didn't get to see my cousin very often but my favourite memory of him was when I was visiting the family back in 2003. I was trying to impress Kyle and the girls, so somehow broke out into some weird kind of chicken dance which had them all in stiches. Kyle was laughing so hard, but he still managed to drag me up to the parents and forced me to do the dance in front of Phil and Cheryl. Very embarrassing. Thats how I will always remember him now xxx All our love, from Alex, Emma, Ashley and Howie xxx

“ When I saw the text message from Samantha knowing the news on the 26th, my heart was broken and I couldn't stop my tears, even though I was lying in bed with a high fever due to the side effects of boost vaccine. In a coma, I seemed to have come back a few years ago, and it was also the day before the new year that my family received a call told that we had lost our very young brother, just graduated to be a new veterinarian and a new father.

So I fully understand how your family feels since I had same feeling before. I deeply condolences for Samantha and the whole family. The Oriental saying goes, "The greatest sorrow in the world is nothing more than a white-haired person farewell to a black-haired person. " I believe that God loves the world and everyone, and Kyle has rested in the heaven. The happiness and laughter of all his family and friends in the world is what he wants to see most. Just as I saw his story said: Kyle is so kind and he doesn't want to celebrate his birthday. Because he is afraid of hurting others by forgetting to invite others, and his christmas gift wishies is asking gift for others. what a so kind person so beautiful mind .

Life is short, even if some are longer and some are shorter, But love is forever. Love will not stop because of the cessation of life.

with deepest sympathy ,

“ My favorite Kyle story is when he was in daycare. Apparently he hadn't eaten all of his lunch. The gal said he could have a cookie if he cleaned his plate. Next thing she knew was his plate was clean and Kyle was ready for his cookie. When she picked him up she quickly realized the Mac and cheese wasn't in his belly. He has shoved it all in his little pockets. I still to this day tell that story. It always brings a smile to people's faces. I've known the Clossick's for a very long time. I'm not surprised that for Christmas Kyle wanted something for someone else. Empathy and kindness run in the family. ❤️ Your are all in my prayers.
