“ So sorry to hear about him. He was a very nice guy, in every sense of the word. He came to Bethesda, he was so awesome, and he always had fun with his wife --- Natalie. I shall forever miss him.

“ Fond memories of a good friend, a great man who loved God and served with a passion. Knew him well after many tears of attending Bethesda Church where we served together in many areas. We went fishing together, worked projects together. We loved the produce of his gardening, especially his homemade salsa. Knew his first and second wife and loved his son and daughter and grandkids. Many will feel as I do and will miss him..
