“Leslie was always full of life. I remember how she loved to say "At ease disease, there's fungus among us and malaria in the area." She was like an older sister to me: loving and terribly clever.

“Our friendship goes back to early married days when my wife Pat and Leslie worked together as social workers at the Ypsilanti State Hospital. What adventures there! Many happy visits followed with Leslie and Dallas and close sharing over the years. What a warm, fun, understanding and encouraging person. We will miss her wit and wisdom and loving kindness
