“ *We were sad to hear of Linda's passing. I first her when I had Troy in my class, Roger went to school with Linda and Richard, we both knew Linda's parents. Linda was so kind, took things as they came and loved her family very much. Our deepest sympathy to all her children, families and friends, memories will be a comfort and peace. “ Linda was a dear friend. I worked with Linda at Bechtel and the University Michigan Hospital. One of the many things I admired about Linda, and they were many. Linda always told it just like it was. Linda was fun to be with. Love our friend lunches. I know she is with Rick, the love of her life. My condolences go out to all her children. She will be truely missed.

I was lucky to reconnect with Linda after I had moved south and we fell right back to our great friendship. She was so easy to be with. I will miss our time together and talks. Really enjoyed our time in Fort Myers and my home. Rest in peace, sweet Lady, I know you are happy back with your beloved.
