“ I grew up very familiar with farm life since my mother had 9 brothers and sisters who were farmers. We have a property that looks like a farm but it isn't. The yard requires a lot of work to keep up buildings, house and property. For over 28 years I have worked around our yard and have had days when I thought this is too much. Then I would see Lloyd drive by in a grain truck or tractor, and I would think, "Ok, he's still doing the work every day!" Somehow everything is better in the world seeing Lloyd Jedele (and David) doing what they love. So I would pick up shovel, my cement hoe or hammer and keep at it. Apart from the occasional conversation when he and Marlene brought sweet corn or when seeing him at an event we did not speak a lot. Lloyd did a lot without needing to talk. Yes, he will be missed.

“ Lloyd was such a blessing to me as a neighbor who was always willing to help. My girls have fond memories of Lloyd teaching them Euchre at Farm Bureau meetings that they attended with my Dad. Lloyd was such a kind and generous man and will be missed.

Lloyd was always super friendly when I delivered Meals on Wheels to Marlene and he on Tuesdays until they recently moved to Linden Square recently. I already miss his warm greeting at the door!
