“ An absolutely wonderful and funny lady who always found humor in everything you would say.

She will truly be missed. It was my honor to spend time with Louise and be a caregiver as well. We talked about the past, our friends, our neighborhood and many memories. We looked at pictures and even cried together!

May you be pain free Louise, reunite with your Soulmate, Don and wonderful son, Dale and all of your family awaiting your homecoming!!

I love you!!! ❤️❤️🤗

“ We lived next door to the Schultz's on Canterbury, so long ago and have many memories. As mothers, we went through a lot of adventures with our children: bee stings, broken arms, falling out of the apple tree. Louise was always good to the many children growing up on that street so long ago.

We extend our sympathy for your loss. Jan and Clem Corona
