“ Aunt Maggie was the best! She never missed a Birthday and sent a card for every occasion. She made everyone feel loved and special. Her talent as a musician was unsurpassed. She was also a talented photographer and loved to take pictures of every celebration. I pray you are celebrating now, laughing with your Dad and Mom, brothers and all those who have passed. I am sure King, Rex, Irving and Possum were so happy to welcome you. Rest now and know how much you are loved and missed. Your Mishy

“ Dear Mr. Losee, Jack, Kent and Mark,

I am very saddened to see you've lost your beloved wife and mother. Salinian's and others were so fortunate to have Mrs Losee share her time and talents with them for all these years. She brightened the lives of so many with her musical talents and kindness. She truly helped make Saline a great place to raise a family and live in. Kind thought and prayers headed your way.

“ The finest church organist I ever had the pleasure of hearing. I attended St. Paul's for ten years as a boy growing up in Saline. Her organ music was usually the best part of the service. Well done Magdalene. Thanks for sharing your great gift. Gayle Finkbeiner

“ I remember when we were all young and would get together, we would play "church" at our Grandma Lillian's home, and Mag would play the pump organ for the singing part. I believe that organ still exists. She gave me my first piano lessons when I was six. Rest in Peace, Mag.

“ I have very fond memories of Mrs Losee tolerating our loud music in her basement when we were teenagers, and years later playing the organ at my wedding. She was an incredible person with an incredible faith. She is now at home and I am certain she is already playing the organ in God's choir!
