“ Tom and I are so sorry for your loss of this amazing Christian woman. She was born with such a loving heart to help all those in need. She took my family under her wing during a sorrowful time before my dad passed in 2001. As a nurse, Marilyn often spent time with us to comfort us, to explain with love and compassion what we could expect during the long two weeks he was at St. Joe. She was an incredible woman, friend and "mother" to so many. She will also be sorely missed by her church family at Trinity. Please know you are all in our prayers as you feel her absence in your life. Find comfort in knowing that Jesus is now taking care of her, as he has always done!

We always enjoyed seeing her and eating the wonderful things she cooked and baked at extended family gatherings with the Hughes family. We have a beautiful crocheted baby blanket that she made for us when our son was born. Sending lots of love to your whole family. Richard and Amy Telgen

“ Such a sweet lady that was loved by many and will be missed. She often visited my restaurant in Saline (Smoke BBQ / Saline Downtown Diner) and I would tease her for lying to me about her age! I always enjoyed my conversations with Marilyn.

“ So many memories...having coffee with mom, swimming at the backyard pool, rides home from church/Sunday school, helping with special celebrations, her plates of Christmas cookies, her warm smile, great laugh, the twinkle in her eyes, reassuring hugs, etc. Marilyn was talented in so many ways, but the one thing to be admired most was her strong faith in her Lord and Savior. Enjoy your mansion in the sky!
