“ Grandma was always someone I could talk to. No matter what was going on in my life, I could talk to grandma about it. She would listen and give advice when she thought it would help, or just be there when I needed to vent. She would simply say “it is what it is”. There was never a time in my life that she wasn’t there when I needed her. She spoiled her grandchildren, because that what she said, grandmas were for. I love her very much, and will miss her dearly.
