“ Mrs. Ealy was the librarian when I was in elementary school, back in the 60's. To this day, I remember her, she was one of the kindest and sweetest people, I have ever met. This world would be a much better place, if we had more people like her. Rest In Peace, Mrs. Ealy ❤️

Like Mindy, Mrs. Ealy was my librarian at Jensen in the 60's. I have nothing but fond memories of her. She was always interested in what you were reading and why you chose a certain book. Saline was a small town then and we were fortunate to have such caring teachers and staff. She was one of the people you never forget. I think we were all better for knowing her. My sincere condolences to her family at this difficult time. Thanks for sharing her with us!

I recall Mary Anne from our Sunday evening Bible Study classes at Grace Bible Church! Becky would bring her to class, and I know that we all appreciated her strong faith, her impeccable example, and her strength amid life's trials. I looked up to her and enjoyed her wisdom, wit and candor during our study times - she was a gem! I will miss her - I'm a much better person having had the opportunity to "sit at her feet." Proverbs 31:25-31: "She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: 'Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.' Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate." Amen. My deepest condolences to Mary Anne's whole family - she will be dearly missed!

Belinda, Becky, and Barb, When I think of your mom I remember her beautiful smile, and the way she always made me feel welcome in your home (even the day Belinda and I made a 9 x 13 cake and consumed at least half of it, as I recall, even though it fell on the floor at one point - hence the name "plop cake") . Such a lovely lady.

Mary Ann was a treasured member of our small group at Grace Bible Church. I often thought what a wonderful example of the Christian life she demonstrated with her kind manner and gentle wisdom. I always felt uplifted a bit after talking to her! She will be greatly missed. Our heartfelt sympathies go out to her family.
