“ *My Aunt Luey was a very tough woman. She was a bulldog when she needed to be, but kind as an angel when she cared for you. She was real, she was pure, & I you needed your ass whooped she was definitely there for that too. I'll always remember how much she loved me, & how much I remember that I never gave her a reason to whoop my ass!😭
She loved me, her family, & her friends so deeply in her soul. I will never forget you “Aunt Luey”❤️*

“Marylou was my very first sister after so many brothers (5) I was so excited to finally have a sister even though we were 8 years apart. Marylou was fiesty from the very beginning. I remember dressing her in my big doll clothes and making her look like a princess. As she got older we would dress her and my brother Bobby somewhat alike Bobby was older but more smaller than her and mom called them her little people. I always will remember my sister as a tough gal no one messed with her or any of her siblings for that matter she would tear them up. Mary loved to post her cooking skills and loved her cooking shows I actually learned a thi g or two from her posts. My sister went though so many health issues but seamed to over come most but I believe God wanted her now to ease all her pain .I love you Chief no toes and I'll always be your S.A.M RIP

“ I don't know what happened to my first post it went away but it started out like this. It's been 48 years since I met the 13 year old little girl with the long black hair. She was so full of questions and conversation that she talked my ear off that really has not changed we still could talk for hours. Remember one time Shirley had to go to work in the middle of canning tomatoes Mary and I wanted to surprise her so we finished canning the 3 bushels before she got home. Another time we surprised her by cleaning the whole dining room and changing the furniture all around . No matter what we did we always had fun, there were campfires, swimming time, pulling weeds in the garden, cooking huge meals, folding clothes and holidays. She always had jokes and pulling pranks she could always make me laugh until my belly hurt literally ! when Richard and I were married I had two children from a previous marriage Shirley immediately adopted us into the family and made us her own from that time on all of the kids considered me and my children family for 48 years things have never changed we've always stayed close this is the second sister I have lost in three months. I sure don't understand gods ways but I do have to trust them so I am.

♥♥ When Mary Lou and Dar were married, My youngest son Chad, Her nephew was the ringbearer their wedding. One time I remember we were all sitting around the living room talking and a bat got into the house. The bat landed on Mary Lou's shoulder and hid under her hair she tried to swish it away and we both hit the floor about that time the bat flew away And dad beat it with a broom and killed it. The memories we made are many and I'm sure They will outlast my lifetime. I will love and miss you always and forever. I am however most excited that you can see again 😊
