“ Will always have fond memories of playing endless games of Pom Pom with Mary, Becky and Nancy in the evenings until the street lights went on. Those were great times.

“ *Annie, Jim and Family:
Mary was a wonderful friend and fun to be around as we became friends in Fort Dodge, Iowa. Mary deeply cared about her family and talked of them often. She was a person who cared for others and saw that their needs were met first before hers. As a fellow BC Survivor, Mary was a fierce cancer fighter who didn't want "it" to win. Mary will be missed and my heart is sad. May she have eternal glory now.
My Deepest Sympathies,
Cheryl L.*
