“ Hello. My mother was Brock Spencer, an old friend of your mom. They first met when my mom was 7 and yours was a year or so older. As children they went to camp together and often spent holidays together. I live in Ann Arbor and whenever my mother would come visit, we would go see your mom or have her come to our house. I always enjoyed her so much - that great sense of humor, which this wonderful photo illustrates. Our grandmothers were also friends and I visited Freda once or twice at Hillside Terrace.

*Just wanted to tell you that I thought your mother was a very interesting, lively, fun woman. Best to you all,
Beth Spencer
