“ I have a number of memories of Aunt Tillie. She baked my birthday cake for my 9 year birthday party at Aunt Florence's in 1958. I remember having her, Uncle Doro, Ray, Mary and Colleen to my house in California for a BBQ in the 70's. Then there was the time that her and Uncle Doro were at Ray and Mary's in California in the 90's. I came down to visit them and we all went dancing at a Country bar called Mulvaney's. Aunt Tillie slipped and fell on the extremely slippery dance floor. We all laughed about that one, including Aunt Tillie. Aunt Tillie always had a great sense of humor. God rest her soul. She is with Uncle Doro now.

“ Grandma Rossi was a gentle, sweet, and nurturing woman. She was tender with everyone she met – even me, her grandkids brash and boisterous friend. Her life was a marvel for me, hearing stories from her and her late husband. The commitment she made toward others' comfort and wellbeing resonated in everything she said and did. I'll miss her dearly, and I'm grateful for the short time I was able to spend with her.
