“ Dear Mrs. Tommelein, Todd, Mark, Rob and extended family.

I am saddened to see that Mr. Tommelein has passed. I have many fond memories of Mr. Tommelein. He had a wonderful smile, a firm handshake, a charming and hilarious sense of humor.

Conversations and brief moments would turn into several hours, a few cold beers and some engaging storytelling. No one could tell a good story like Mr. T. His insight/wisdom into life and politics was always spot on. But, the biggest thing I'll remember about Mr. T is how much he loved his family. Rest In Peace Mr. T. You will be sorely missed.

“ To The Family,

Please Accept My Heartfelt Condolences. Truly the loss of a precious loved one is most difficult. Please find comfort in the promise our most loving Heavenly Father Jehovah God gives us in Revelation 21:4" And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning; nor outcry; nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes, We can look forward to a time soon to come when all suffering including death will be done away with forever. “ Some of my favorite memories with Maury are the simple ones — sitting around playing cards, drinking a few beers, laughing, and telling stories. He loved to hunt, and you could always hear the pride and excitement in his voice when he talked about it. Those moments didn't need to be fancy; they were just good times with a good friend. I'll always cherish them." Even in the end he was a gracious man! He will truly be missed. Pam Miller

“ I have very fond memories of both Maury, Shirley & their sons! They were very good friends with my parents throughout the years! Maury could always tell a good story about my dad. May he rest in peace & may God bless his family.
