“ I was very sorry to hear about Maizie’s passing. I loved having her as a neighbor. She always had something to say that made me smile. I loved her fierce spirit and that she never let anything get her down. I was always happy to see her out when the weather was nice and to see her sitting in her chair at the corner of her apartment, keeping an eye on our neighborhood. I will miss her.

“ Any meal at Mazie's house was a good one but I was always in awe watching her whip up a pie, crust and all, from scratch. No measuring. Just a little of this and a little of that and in about an hour we'd have a slice of heaven on our plates! Wish I could have learned that from her.
