“ Miram was a friend growing up in Binghamton NY. Decided to search for her and discovered she has past but know I will see her again someday as I am a Christian. What adventures we had as kids on the Northside and school mates. She hasn't changed much from when I saw her last. Last time we were in touch was about 1985 when I lost my mother and left Binghamton.

“ I participated in one of Miriam's bible study groups. I fondly remember her laughter filling the room. Laughing with us, but perhaps also laughing at some of us spiritual novices....

“ I will always remember Miriam from Grace Bible Church in Ann Arbor many years ago. She became friends with my sister a few years later. We both loved her very much and I will be praying for her family. God bless you Miriam, Bill and family. Mary Wilkinson

“ Miriam was not only an avid student of the Bible, but deeply loved the one true God of the Bible. She had a tremendous burden for those who didn't know Jesus as their Savior. She shared the Lord with love and great compassion. She was a very tender, humble person, but yet bold and not afraid to stand for the truth. She knew God's grace and mercy to her as an undeserving sinner, but as a saint in his eyes because of God's cleansing blood and forgiveness.
