Dear Mom,

What's to be shared at a time like this. Perhaps, I could tell the world how very Loving you are- were. Or, give some insight into what a Caring individual you are - were. I think your never ending commitment to me and my becoming the Man I am says a lot. You made it clear I always had you in my corner. Always someone who kept her own council, you made your point when asked. Never before. This talent alone would have made an impression on the World. But, when you included your commitment to Family, Friends, and Country, well I'll tell you, you're nothing but Amazing in a World that longs for Amazing citizens. I love you, I see you moving forward to do all that's to be done by you. Rest assured, the Family you left behind is better for knowing and Loving you.

“ Nancy was a lovely, kind lady. I knew her through my niece-in-law's (Harmony) family. She was always so pleasant and I enjoyed very much talking with her at family functions and at my home (and had looked forward to her coming for Easter Dinner this year). I know she will be greatly missed by family and friends. They were blessed to have her for so many years and I am happy to have known her. May she Rest in Peace.

Loving thoughts to her family at this time.
