Nancy was born on August 29, 1925 in Ann Arbor, MI, the only child of Harold and Susan (Ambrose) Finkbeiner. On March 1, 1946 she married Raymond Ceronsky and he preceded her in death in 1985. She was a graduate of Ann Arbor High, class of 1943. Nancy and Raymond moved to Saline, MI, in 1951 and together they raised their family. Nancy was employed at the Saline Reporter Newspaper, starting her career in 1958 and retiring in 2000. The last several years of her employment, she worked from her home selling advertisements. She was a member of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, the Saline American Legion Women's Auxiliary, where she volunteered her time for many years in charge of mailing the monthly newsletter. She also was a member of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital (Saline) Auxiliary. Nancy enjoyed reading, working crossword puzzles, trips to Northern Michigan to visit her husband's family, and most of all, spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren. She was always present at school functions and sporting events. Grandma's house was lovingly referred to as the "Hub" where family and friends gathered to meet. She also enjoyed regular coffee clutches with her daughter and granddaughters. Nancy was always willing to listen to her family with an open heart. She never met a stranger. She would listen with compassion to the life stories of people she had never met before. Nancy was a devoted mother. “ We will always remember Nancy and how she seemed to smile even in the midst of pain or discomfort. Nancy shared a room at the Saline Evangelical home in Saline with my mother who was recovering from a fall. We had many nice chats with Nancy and her family who came to visit her often. We definitely got the sense of family closeness from Nancy and her children and grandchildren as we watched them interact. They seemed like a very close-knit unit and the atmosphere was always pleasant and fun-loving. God bless you Nancy, and may his angels keep you in their care!

“ My Grandma was the center of my family for the 28 years of my life. I am the youngest of the grandchildren and I have always felt like I was her favorite. All of us feel this way though because she was such a loving, engaging woman. We all felt this special and that we were the center of her life. I look forward to this weekend where I will get to see all of the people whose lives were touched by my amazing Grandmother.
