“ Norma Jean was one the most selfless people I've ever known. Through the good and bad times she always remained an oak that would stand to fight the next day. The world has lost a truly good soul. I'm honored for the childhood I had with her. She was home to so many of us <3 All my Love- Chelsea

“ Remember many days when we were young, growing up in the same neighborhood right across the street from each other. Sliding on our hill in the winter or playing cards on her porch on rainy days in the summer. Went to the same schools and was in class with her brother Danial. Will always be in my heart.
