“ *Dear Theresa and Family,
I met Norm a couple years ago, in the Tuesday Morning men's Scripture Study group.
I soon learned he had been employed with Federal Mogul, at the Shoemaker Street location of its subsidiary, Bower Roller Bearing Div.. I worked at the Hart Ave. plant. from 1965-67, my first job out of high school.
I am sorry that Norm died, and particularly sad that I missed his funeral.
Please accept my condolences as well as prayers for the repose of his soul.
God bless you.*

“ Dear Theresa and family,
We just were informed of Norman's passing. We express sorrow for your loss. Much was written about Norman. He was a hard worker devoted to Theresa and family. His strong religious faith was gifted with his family surrounding him at the end. Truly this was the grace of God offering Divine Mercy. That should bring comfort to you all. Because of prior commitments we will not be able to attend Mass. However, know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. And may the good and merciful Lord bless you.
