“ There are few people as fine as Norm. Nearly 30 years ago when we moved a mile west of him, we learned almost immediately what a wonderful man he was. A snowstorm drifted our road shut when my husband was trying to get home and, thankfully, he was stranded in front of Norm's house. Not knowing my husband from Adam, Norm brought my husband home on his tractor. Around the same time when our daughters were little and we had a horse, pony and goat for their pleasure, we lost power for three days. My husband was out of town on business. Norm still had electricity and he helped me fill numerous coolers with water, twice daily for those three days, to water the animals. Now my husband and I walk at least two miles every day and you could always count on Norm to wave or honk or stop to pass the time of day. We miss him already. Our condolences to the Lambarth family on the loss of this good man. Norm won't be forgotten.

“ I agree with Mark Mulder, Norm was always friendly and never hesitated to take a moment to talk to you or help you out if he could. He hauled many loads of material for our home and business. One day he stopped by our house and Norm and I sat down with a couple cold drinks and watched Dale Earnhardt's last race. He was a great guy and will be truly missed. May he rest in a special place in Heaven.

“ Norm was a great neighbor, "down the road a piece" . Always a wave as you drove by. Never failed to provide a hay wagon for our 18 years of bonfires. God Bless him and keep him. Our sympathy to the Lambarth family. Mark and Robin Mulder
