“ What a wonderful woman! I remember her walking the streets around Brecon Village and always having a kind word for my parents. She will be missed by many.

“ Omah became a special friend to me when she was an avid (and swift) walker on the streets of Saline. Our age difference was never a factor. She was so well-read, politically informed, an accomplished traveler and a caring person who always asked about my children! She made me laugh, wonder, and always look forward to our next visit, usually out to eat. The fact that we shared the same maiden name (Bernard) makes me think we were probably related! I will truly miss this wonderful woman.

“ Too many good memories of my only slightly older Aunt. She was such an inspiration with her walking, reading & knitting. What a blessing it is to know that she is with her Savior now & I will see her again in heaven.

“ Omah was a great lady! I shared many trips with her and loved her laughing , adventurous personality. She tried to appear gruff , but was a typical grouch with a heart of gold. Everyone knew that. We'll miss you, Omah.
