“ It saddens me to see that Aunt Pauline is gone. Even sadder I didn't hear about it. She also had sisters Maybelle and Dorothy who passed before her, several other brothers also I believe. Her dad was William Carson Crisel I have been told. I wish I could have seen her one last time. My memories of her are sitting in her kitchen with her eating gingersnaps and looking at all her knick knacks in there. She talked so fast with that Arkansas thick southern accent. :) I can still hear it saying my name. I pray GOD has her close.

“ Pauline was a great person..we had the pleasure of living next door to her for a short time before she left Flint...She was like a grandmother to my daughter Merissa, they hung out every day..R.I.P Pauline..
