“ Olivia and Dylan grew up with Christain. He was at our house a lot and they at his. They both had personal relationships with Renee. She was their security when things weren't just right at home. While they didn't see her as much the last couple years as they grew to be active teenagers, this loss hit them both very hard. We are all concerned and are praying for Christian and Christopher. I'm sorry.

“ I miss Renee so much. I am so very sorry about what happened. Renee loved her son SO much!!! I love Christian like he is my own son. I always considered Renee a friend. One of my favorite things about her was how honest and straightforward she was. And if I EVER needed help she immediately offered it to me. I trusted her with my sons. I consider her son my "3rd son." I will NEVER forget her...we have lived with just a fence between us since we had Christian and Jack (my son). Christian and my 2 sons go back and forth over that fence constantly. I have seen Christian nearly every day for the past several years. He is both of my sons' "bestie." EVERY time I was with Renee she was kind to me--EVERY time. And she could always make me laugh. I miss her so very much, and my heart is just broken. I am so sorry for her family. Please, please, please let me know if you need ANYTHING...I can watch Christian and Abbie ANYTIME, no matter when, day or night, and no matter for how long. Renee gave my sons special (huge) Halloween treats; she baked cookies for us; my sons were at her home all the time. Her home was just beautiful. Most of my memories--and certainly most of my BEST ones--of my sons' lives include Christian. I am so very, very sorry. Sincerely, Cindy Plumley.

“ We never know the right things to say in a situation like this. The shock and sadness of Renee's untimely death will haunt me forever. I live across the street and just knowing Renee was always there was a comfort in itself. Renee was not just a neighbor, but a friend that I could count on if I needed a hand and she seemed to enjoy giving me a hand. We visited each other now and then, but in hind site, I wish it would of been more often. Renee, in general, was upbeat, happy, funny, thoughtful and gave this older mom words of wisdom and childrearing advice. Renee always seemed happy to have a quick chat. I will miss her so very much. May all of our prayers for her son, husband and family give them comfort and peace forever. Diane
