“ I have always enjoyed watching you and your brother Ken interact and how well you worked together. The two of you had a wonderful life. You have raised five wonderful children they are a delight just as you and Catherine were. Your very capable family helped care for you and kept you comfortable. The Santure family has always been my love and have been thankful to have married into it. I will continue to keep you in my memories along with husband Ken & daughter Janice from now to Eternity.

You had a personality to warm every person.

The capacity to care and forgive and then some.

If all on this Earth could be like you

A terrific world it would be.

Your laughter, your smile, and your hugs

Worth more than a billion bucks.

My life is better for having known you, Catherine, Ken, and now your entire family in my life.

Thank you Aunt Carol. Beautifully written and thank you for your kind words. Those Santure men sure knew how to pick the good ones! We are grateful that Uncle Ken chose you and brought you into our lives. You are a blessing! May those beautiful memories with my grandpa nourish your heart during this time of grieving and provide strength until we all meet again. Love, Nicky
