Bob met his future bride while at Dominican College. He and Carlyn were married on June 24, 1967, at St. Mary's Church in South Milwaukee, Wisconsin. They were blessed with over 57 years together. Bob was the love of Carlyn's life and she survives. They were a team. Bob was the loving dad of Mary Boivin, Michael (Shannon) Boivin, and Tom (Amanda) Boivin. Bob was the proud and supportive grandpa of Hannah Boivin, Ashleigh (Mark) Janiga, Lizzy Boivin (Anthony), Lauren Boivin, Ava Boivin, and Ethan Boivin. He treasured every moment spent with them. “ I got to know Bob as a wonderful neighbor and surrogate "Dad." I was blessed to be a friend to his amazing daughter, Mary. God brought her into my life just a few short years ago, but it has been an amazing addition to my life and Bob and Carlyn were part of that, as well. Last year we became neighbors on Hollywood Dr. Only explained by the goodness of God and the listening ear of a special friend. I so enjoyed walking my grandkids by Bob and Carlyn's place. He was always funny and kind ready to keep me on my toes with a sarcastic joke or comment. I enjoyed bringing them special dinner deliveries as we got to know each other better. He will truly be missed but we will continue to be good neighbors and friends to his beautiful wife. I will also make sure to keep up his silly sarcastic humor for his daughter. God bless this family and give them peace in knowing Bob was a good and faithful servant.

“ I worked for Bob at the City of Saline, for what I thought would be a start up job and it ended up being my career. I admired his love for his "bride" and his kids and I always admired him for that. Always a pleasant man with a gentle hug whenever he came back to City Hall to pay bills. My condolences to the family a love like that will leave a large VOID God Bless you all, cherish the memories.

“ I know Bob from the Saline Senior Center. Carlyn was a pen pal and volunteered for some intergenerational programs, so he would bring her and pick up/drop off her letters. I always enjoyed chatting with him when he came up here. He was such a sweet man.

“ *Bob Boivin was the Saline City Treasurer for many years, including the time when I was the Mayor. I respected him for his municipal accounting knowledge but I appreciated him more for his friendship, his compassion for everyone he met, and his kindness.
