“ I, too, remember all the euchre games and the popcorn. I remember all the laughter coming from around the kitchen table. Who took that trick, legally. Not who bent the rules a little. I remember all the fresh veggies and eggs. And Uncle Bob's teasing. He sure could make the grumpiest person smile and laugh. I have so many fond memories of Uncle Bob and Aunt Helen. I wouldn't be surprised to see the Guenther children in heaven playing euchre with Grandma and Grandpa around the kitchen table. That's where everyone always congregated. The kitchen table and a deck of cards! R.I.P. Love, Janice Steinhauer

“ I will always treasure the memories of time spent at Uncle Bob and Aunt Helen's farm and playing with my cousins Bonnie, Gary, Glenn, Randy, and Sherrie. We had so much fun and I always felt welcome and a part of the family. I know Uncle Bob and Aunt Helen have already got a euchre game going in Heaven with my Mom and Dad, and the men are always dealing! R.I.P. Uncle Bob - we love you!
