“ It's been three month's since Dad past and I think about him everyday.

Today it's the end of November, sunny and almost 50 degrees. These are the days he would have spent all day working in the yard. Typically on a day like this I would go to the house and sit with him on the porch, just soaking up the last nice days of the year and enjoying his company.

It's those memories that I miss the most. I'm angered that I was cheated out of more days like that with him, and also blessed to know that I had as many as I did.

I can't stress enough, what a great man he was, that I love and miss him dearly, and I look forward to seeing him again some day.

“ Anyone who knew Ron, knows that I couldn't have chosen a finer man to share my life with.

He was my best friend, and partner for over 44 years.

A loving husband to me, and a great Dad to Brad & Amy.

Ron was a modest man of integrity.... with an easy going , gentle nature.

We have always enjoyed a great deal of humor in our household...Due in large part to Ron's quick wit, and a fun, dry, and often irreverent sense of of humor.

We all have lots of good memories.

I will miss him, and continue to love him, until I can be with him again some day.

Love always,

SKE

“ Suzanne and Family: Gail and I want to send our sympathy to you. I did not realize Ron was ill. The last time we saw each other was at a Tigers baseball game where we talked sports and families. He was very good at that. I first met you and Ron over 30 years ago working for the insurance company and enjoyed the company of both of you. When Ron left the company we stayed in touch. Ron was very professional and an extremely nice person. Ron was a good sport. He went horse backing riding in the desert of Palm Springs with us during a trip we won. The horse got away from him and took off during the ride. He had a bright red shirt on which was flying across the desert. When he got back to the group I gave him the nickname the Flying Tomato. He always got a kick out of that. He was always thinking of how the other person would feel when business decisions came up. He treated everyone like he wanted to be treated. A very nice person who this world will miss. I am sorry I wont be able to make it to the funeral but I wanted to let you know we are thinking of you and the family and pulling for you in the future. Best wishes, Rick Stevens

“ Dear Family,

I am shocked and saddened to see that your beloved Ron has passed. As a neighbor down the road I often walked past your house and if Ron was out tending to the yard I would stop for a chat. More often then not it was simply a wave and a hello. I had no idea Ron was suffering from Alzheimer disease (my mother passed from the same disease). I also did not know that he was a Green Beret and a decorated veteran. I am so sorry for your loss and send you kind thoughts and prayers in these tough days ahead.

“ Game day is approaching and Michigan football is almost underway! Dad was the most loyal Michigan fan I've ever known, yet somehow..... always thought they were going to loose? Dad was never known for being optimistic, but it was comical his prediction of the game. We could be 9-0 and he would say "about time they loose one", or we'd be playing Eastern and I'd hear "these are the types of games that can be upsets".

It never failed; despite the talent he always had his doubts, and at the same time he would plan his weekend round cheering on his favorite Wolverine team. Yet he'd never say anything about the Lions?

So, I just wanted to take a moment to share that odd and endearing fact about my Dad. It saddens me to think I will never watch another game with him. Be assured he is in Heaven cheering on the Maize and Blue, not betting on them mind you, but cheering them on. I love you dad, and GO BLUE!
