“ Kris and all, I am grateful for your mother. She truly is one of the best persons I've ever met. I fondly remember evenings in her room talking, trying to learn to knit. I always felt welcomed and loved. There are no words to express my sadness for your loss. I pray it helps to know you are all being held tightly in prayer. May the peace of God comfort you and in time bring you peace. XOXO Stefanie Ainley and family

“ Although I had only known Rosemary over the past couple of years, I am grateful to have met her. She was a caring, strong and witty woman. While visiting during the holidays: you could feel Rosemary's love radiating throughout the entire house before even spotting her. She was truly a wonderful person and she inspired many lives during her time here.
