“ Ruth was my Mothers best friend and her name was Regina Smith "Reggie". Regina lost touch with Ruth when she moved to Denver. When Regina passed away I was saddened to discover that Ruth passed away 10 months before my Mother and we both used the same funeral home. Before Ruth moved to Denver she gave my Mother a gift card to the Gandy Dancer Restaurant in Ann Arbor.

“ Our cousin Ruth will be missed. Her laughter and joy she shared with the people around her always brought sunshine to everyone's day. We can only say we where glad to have her in our lives and are left with many fond memories to be shared with others in the years to come. Her German Chocolate cake was always everyone's favorite dessert at family get dinners. Mary, Ruthie and Judy are in our thoughts during these coming days.
