“ Here's the extended obituary.
Meyer, Sally Ann (Meske)
1933-2019

Of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Dade City, Florida, age 85, died peacefully on Tuesday, March 5, 2019. Visitation will be held on Sunday, March 10, 2019, at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline between the hours of 1 and 2:30 p.m. with a service at 2:30 p.m.

Sally was born on October 16, 1933, the 11th of 13 children to the late Paul and Marie (Kornack) Meske of Alpena. She grew up in Alpena. She attended high school in Saline and graduated from Saline High School in June 1952.

Sally's love of art began in high school and continued through her life. While in high school she participated in many of the school plays, presented award-winning original speeches and tied for third place honors at graduation. Sally also was a runner up for Saline's Queen of the Fair in 1951. Though she received the State Department of Public Instruction Scholarship to Michigan State Normal College, she did not attend.

After graduation, she worked in the office at Sears and at the local art store.

Sally married Leon Meyer on August 16, 1953, in Ann Arbor.

In their retirement years, Sally and Leon began spending half the year in Florida enjoying the sun and mild winters.

One of Sally's defining characteristics was her participation in church activities. She was always active in her faith community and enjoyed singing.

She is preceded in death by her parents; brothers Harold Meske,

Ray Meske, Roy Meske, Martin Meske and Glenn Meske; and sisters Mildred Letts, Jeannie Connell, Alma Bush, June Quattlebaum, Agnes Meske.

Survivors include her husband, Leon; children David (Ann) of Ravenna, Ohio, Richard of Michigan Center, Michigan, Kathleen of Saline, Michigan, and Steven (Diann) Whitmore Lake, Michigan; grandchildren Aurora (Jason) Tyler of Columbia, Missouri, Caitlin Meyer of Columbia, Missouri, Jonathan Meyer Beltman of Saline, Michigan, and Anika Meyer-Beltman of Saline, Michigan; one great-granddaughter Avonlea Tyler of Columbia, Missouri; and sisters Margrette (Paul) Lindemann, Eunice (Jack) Feldkamp, and Kay (Otto) Donakowski.

The family wishes to thank the wonderful nurses, aides, doctors and all the great, hardworking staff at Saline Evangelical Home.

“ *Aunt Sally or "Silly Sally" was a joy to be around. Never a disparaging word!
Her smile and overall good disposition will be sorely missed.
She does leave behind a wonderful family that will carry on her legacy!
God speed Sally!*
