“ I miss you Dad, so very much 💔 they said it would get easier, "time would heal" ... they were wrong. It's not easier and time has only made it hurt more. I had to learn to live without you... I'm still learning 😞 I love you

“ So saddened to hear of Alex's death. I remember Alex as a kind and wonderful person. He was one of my husbands dearest friends years ago and also our BestMan in 1963.

He was late, lost the rings but we stilled loved him and laughed about it often.

The two had many good times together and would conspired in Hungarian so I wouldn't know their next plans :- ) (this taught me to learn a little Hungarian)

Thanks Alex for the many good memories....may you rest in peace
My Condolences and Love,
Judy
