“ So many memories. One of the most special times was the days we had together - just you and me - after you fell in 2012. We sat together in the rehab center talking and talking and talking. Our connection was so close that at times I thought you were psychic. You knew things that were going on with me before I would even tell you.

I always loved it when you would tell me about the day I was born -- -- and the fact that you missed Thanksgiving Dinner because of me.

Thank you for always being there. My love for you goes on forever.
