

Scott Thomas Kivi

August 28, 1964 - January 30, 2022

Scott Thomas Kivi, 57, of Dexter, MI passed away peacefully on Sunday, January 30, 2022. Scott was loved by many in his community to which he served as a graphic designer producing mass amounts of shirts, sweatshirts, sweatpants and more to local businesses, charities, U of M, Dexter, Ann Arbor, and Saline Athletics. He loved connecting with others and had a deep and strong love for working on muscle cars, the ocean and scuba diving. He also loved golf and was a true foodie. His happiest moments were spent on Portage Lake either cruising up the Chain of Lakes with his daughters or hanging out on the docks with his extended family and friends. Sanibel and Captiva Islands, the Florida Keys, and the Bahamas were Scott's favorite places to visit. Sanibel with his mom, walking the beaches looking for shells, and hanging out soaking up the salt water and the sun's rays. Traveling to the Bahamas to go fishing with his dad and catching that whopper of a fish. Spending time in the Keys growing up with his parents and his brothers were some of his fondest memories as a child. Scott had a fun sense of humor; he loved to get people going by joking with them by saying, when he was growing up, he carried around chipmunks in his pockets all the time. He was creative, an artist, and a man with strong convictions. Scott will be dearly missed and always remembered. Scott was predeceased by Jannie Elizabeth "Lib" Kivi (mother), Dr. Louis Peter Kivi (father), and Allen L. Kivi (brother). He is survived by his two daughters, Kaitlyn of Morrisville, North Carolina and Rebecca of Ypsilanti, Michigan. He is also survived by his three brothers and his sister-in-law: Cheryl Kivi (Wife of Allen) of Northville, Michigan, David (Wendy) Kivi of Sanford, Michigan, Douglas (Mary) Kivi of Pinckney, Michigan, and Craig Kivi of Pinckney, Michigan. Also surviving are his nieces and nephews Kara (Robert) Pridgen, Anna Pridgen, Elsie Pridgen, Kendra (Matthew) Gibson, Rowen Gibson, Davis Gibson, Amanda Lewis, Lydia Lewis, Justin (Patricia) Kivi, Brandon (Tabita) Kivi, Caleb Kivi, Brandi (Robert) Castillo, Christian Castillo and Coral Castillo. “ Good morning. Unable to sleep, this morning at 4 AM I learned of Scott’s passing and I was devastated. Scott was a long time friend that helped me get my hunting business off the ground with this expertise and design and Printing. We met in 2006 and continue the relationship through, the opening of Salt Springs brewery in 2015. Scott was instrumental and providing all of our merchandise for the first six years we were in business. His creativity and drive paired well with mine and we were able to effectively execute so many different projects together. His energy and passion were his strongest attributes.

As I send this note into the universe this morning, I am in disbelief. I cried myself to sleep last night because he was such a good soul with so much to give and now he’s gone. I’m so sad to have missed his passing and has not spent more time with him prior. Peace with the family, forever.

“ Kivi Family - Scott was a great supporter of Dexter Field Hockey, helping us year after year and outfitting our families since the beginning. We had countless conversations about his family, our community and our thoughts on the day. I always budgeted in extra time when I would pick up our gear so that we could chat and catch up. I will miss our conversations. Dexter Field Hockey was better for his support. I am sorry for your loss. Prayers with the Kaitlyn and Becca and the entire Kivi family.
