Lisa and Family,

During our time at Millikin University, we became great friends of Scott's mother Peggy Madden and knew how proud she was of Scott and his kindness and love of family as well as his many accomplishments.

Though I knew Scott only slightly I was struck by his good heart and judicious thoughtfulness, love, and care for Peggy.

My wife Chris and I are saddened by the loss of this good man. You and your family will be in my prayers.

We were very sorry to learn of Scott's death. Although we didn't know Scott, we were well acquainted with his mother, Peggy, through First Presbyterian Church in Decatur, Illinois and his sister, Sally, and her children. Our thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace are with Scott's entire family.

Scott and I were neighborhood buddies. We would often walk together to elementary school (Mary W. French), walk home at lunch, back after lunch, and then home at the end of the day. We had wonderful silly friendly kid-type arguments. I remember picking out Hot Wheels for one of Scott's birthday parties. Scott wore fuzzy warm boots in 4th or 5th grade. It was cool that his middle name was Fielding and I lived on Fielding Ct. I remember Scott's braces, glasses and striped shirts. It was common to see one of his older sisters driving around the neighborhood in the VW Beetle, or someone in the Madden family walking Wolsey, the big Old English Sheepdog. Scott, his siblings, and parents, represented good and were role models for growing up in Decatur in the 60's and 70's.

My thoughts are with Scott's family.

I will always remember Scott as the funny, talented, smart and happy kid that he was growing up in Decatur.

Becoming a great husband, father, friend and co-worker is no surprise as he was always such a joy to be around.

Godspeed, Scott, and our deepest sympathies to family and friends who will miss you so much.
