“ Worked with Shirley at Sheridan, I will never forget her laugh. It was contagious, I remember laughing with her, just because of her laugh. Last time I saw Shirley was at the Dollar store in Chelsea, I told her that my husband had cancer. We hugged each other. Now they are both in heaven and free from pain. My deepest condolence to the family, she loved you all very much. Hugs. Kathy Anderson

“ Shirley and I worked together at Sheridan Books. She was an inspiration to me in many ways. She was such a loving, caring and joyful person. Before the birth of my first grandchild she gave me a gift, a toy wagon, and said "from one grandma to another." I know how much her family meant to her. May you find comfort at this difficult time. RIP my dear friend.

“ Work with Shirley starting at Braun-Brumfield and then Sheridan. She was a great lady that will always be in my heart as she had a heart of gold and such a wonderful smile and laugh that I will always remember. Played games on facebook to keep in touch with each other. RIP Shirley!
