“ Many good times were shared on the golf course and at the bowling alley. Will never forget the time we all went to Drummond Island also with Jerry's parents. His mother the chief cook (and a good one she was) and his dad loving every minute fishing with whomever was available. The kids, all five of them had a great time and the week went way to fast.. It was an annual trip for you but we only went the one time. Thanks for that time and all the others. You also tried to teach us to play Bridge but that did not go well for German Ucre players. So sorry for your loss and may God's richest blessings be with you now and forever. Love, Ralph and Esther Gross
